A VALUABLE WORK.

The census report, which is now being prepared under the direct supervision of Secretary of State Timme, and which will be issued early in January, will form one of the most valuable works ever emanating from any of the departments at the state capitol. It will embrace over 1,000 pages, and it is to be bound in book form. That it will be widely sought after admits of no doubt. The volume will enjoy the distinction of being the first work ever published by the state, which is devoted exclusively to the census enumeration, and the compilation of agricultural and manufacturing statistical information. Heretofore, the census taken in this state have embraced a simple enumeretion of Wisconsin's inhabitants, with their sex, etc., and it has formed only a fragment in the secretary of state's report.

A novel and interesting table, which the new volume will contain, will be one giving the name, regiment, company and postoffice address of every surviving ex-soldier and sailor of the late war. The subjoined is a statement showing the enrollment of the militia and the enumeration of the surviving ex-soldiers and sailors of the war:

Evansville.

—The Methodists at this place are rejoicing because the report about Rev. Henry Faville leaving the M. E. church is not true. Mr. Faville was pastor of the M. E. church at this place in 1880-1-2 and was liked by all the members of the church and had a host of friends out side of the church.

—The debating society met Friday night last, the subject was "Should woman vote and hold office" The meeting was held in the G. A. R. hall and was filled with outsiders. Dr. T. F. Stair, T. C. Richardson, and E. R. Curry, Wm: Finn were on the affirmative and James Gillies, J. Boyd Jones, H. Doolittle H. N. Simon on the negative. The judges decided in favor of the negative.

—F. W. Robinson & Co. shipped five tons of poultry last week.

—Dr. James Hedley's lecture last Thursday night was one of the best ever delivered in this place.

—Mrs. Green died last Thursday and was buried on Saturday. She leaves two little children and their father's whereabouts is unknown.

—The tack factory is rushed with orders and S. J. Barber reports everything in a prosperous condition.

—Wilbur T. Hoxie starts for the south this week and will be gone about a month and take in New Orleans before returning.

—The M. E. Sunday school will have an entertainment and Christmas tree in the basement of the church on Christmas eve.

—A candidate for postmaster has bet ten dollars that he will be appointed. We fear he will lose his money.

—We think there should be a law passed against hunting rabbits with a ferret.

—Miss May West is home to spend the holidays.

—The Milwaukee Sentinel of Tuesday gave in the appointments of postmasters this place as having had an appointment. The name given was George Houmsser, and it is believed is a mistake in print by all, as there is no one in this place by that name, and the party is not known here. If George Homer is appointed, the democrats will be very indignant over the matter, because they think there are plenty here that can fill the office well, and, we believe, if it is true, Mr. Houmsser will meet a warm reception, by republicans, too.

THE ULSTER BRAGGARTS.

DUBLIN'S MAYOR HURLS DEFIANCE AT THE ORANGEMEN.

Parnell Playing a Waiting Game—Some More Opinion on the Irish Situation —French Success in Madagascar —Possible British Opposition.

LONDON, Dec. 23.—Mr. T. D. Sullivan, lord mayor-elect of Dublin, addressing a meeting of the Irish National league in that city Tuesday, denounced the Orangemen and others who were clamoring against home rule as bigoted fanatics. He said the land question must be settled soon, and must be settled according to the inexorable laws of supply and demand. It was impossible to guarantee to landlords the ancient value or the ancient rental of their property in the face of the competition offered by the cheap lands and free lands of America and Australia. He warned the "Ulster braggarts" that resistance to home rule, when that measure was once passed, would mean nothing less than treason, and would speedily involve them in fighting enough to satisfy them, but the fighting would be not with the National league, but with the queen's troops. He expressed the hope and belief that Mr. Gladstone would persevere in pressing his scheme of home rule for Ireland, disregarding the clamors of a feeble, unpatriotic and unrepresentative minority.

In an interview Tuesday Mr. James O'Kelly, one of Mr. Parnell's most trusted lieutenants, said that Mr. Gladstone had now a good opportunity of settling the Irish home rule question to the enormous benefit of both Ireland and England, and that no one was more competent to settle this question which had vexed both nations for centuries. Mr. O'Kelly added that the Irish parliamentary party would meet next month to decide upon the policy to be pursued at the opening of parliament in February.

Mr. Parnell has informed his colleagues that it would be unwise at present to formulate their demands on behalf of Ireland. He believes that the proper policy now is to play a waiting game, and in the meantime to carefully watch and study all political events affecting the cause.

The Rt. Hon. William E. Forster, who was chief secretary for Ireland in Mr. Gladstone's cabinet, opposes Mr. Gladstone's scheme for the concession of home rule or a parliament for Ireland. He says that Irish independence in any form would fail to solve the difficulty and would be fraught with danger to both Great Britain and Ireland.

Lord Rosebery, Mr. Gladstone's chief lieutenant in Scotland, writes that he is willing to concede home rule to Ireland on the condition that the unity of the empire is maintained.

FRANCE GOBBLES MADAGASCAR.

Peace Concluded That Gives the French All They Wanted—English Interests.

LONDON, Dec. 23.—The long standing warfare between France and the Hovas of Madagascar is announced as having been terminated by the conclusion of a treaty of peace signed at Antanorivo. Such terms of the agreement as have been cabled to Paris give the following particulars: France assumes a protectorate over the island, and will retain the troops now there as an army of occupation pending the settlement of a war indemnity amounting to 10,000,000 francs, which has been exacted from the Madagascans. The queen of the Hovas, the ruling race of the natives, retains her sovereignty over the entire island in name at east, but France appoints a president of council, who may select a cabinet and will have direction of foreign affairs. He will be protected by a permanent guard of French officers. It will thus be seen that French influence is to be supreme, and that France has gained practically all that she has sought during the protracted and sanguinary conflict with the patriotic people of the island. It is probable that some of the half-savage tribes, whose submission to the Hovas has hardly been more than nominal, will yet require to be subdued by a vigorous campaign before the French gain sufficiently complete control of the coast, to prevent smuggling and piracy and enjoy the full benefit of the rich trade of this marvelously productive domain.

While the news of the signing of the treaty is official, the particulars thus far received are too meager to form a basis of opinion as to whether or not Great Britain can consistently permit its ratification in view of the government's previous protests against the action of France in forcing a war of invasion upon the inoffensive Hovas. Great Britain's interest in Madagascar, while not so ancient by two centuries as that of France, is more tangible and definite. It was under the influence of English agents and missionaries in 1810, that Madagascar first became a factor in international commerce and began to emerge from paganism, and there will be a strong public opposition to allowing this rich island, second in size only to Australia, to slip entirely out of England's jurisdiction.

Our Ministers to Spain.

MADRID, Dec. 23.—Dr. Curry, the new United States minister to Spain, presented his credentials to Queen Christina Tuesday. He expressed the hope that the commercial relations between the two countries would speedily be placed on a mutually satisfactory basis. The queen regent expressed her earnest wish for a closer business friendship between Spain and the United States. The general impression here is that the commercial treaty, which has been so long delayed, can be negotiated with little difficulty.

Attacks the American Tariff.

LONDON, Dec. 23.—The Standard, commenting on Secretary Manning's report, makes a savage attack on the American tariff system. The tariff, it says, is a nationally sustained promoter of business dishonesty under which all forms of rascality thrive. It also charges that all American exported manufactured goods are shoddy.

A Murderous Barber.

CHICAGO, Dec. 23.—A quarrel between a barber named Oakley and a dressmaker named Mrs. Lizzie Brown, came nearly resulting Tuesday in murder and suicide. The quarrel had been transferred to the police court, and the parties were leaving the court building, when suddenly Oakley drew a razor and made a savage slash at Mrs. Brown's throat, narrowly missing it and inflicting a severe cut on the back of her neck. He tried to continue the assault but was prevented by bystanders when he cut himself across the wrist with suicidal intent. Mrs. Brown's condition is precarious and Oakley is in jail.

Expert Chess-Players Matched.

NEW YORK, Dec. 23.—Arrangements for the chess match between Messrs. Steinitz and Zuckertort have been perfected by the committee of the Manhattan Chess club. The play will commence on either Jan. 4 or 5.

Rub the "painful points" thoroughly, when afflicted with neuralgia with Salvation Oil, the great pain annihilator. Price 25 cents a bottle.

Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup cures croupy cough that sounds so like nails driven into the child's coffin.

I am thoroughly satisfied with the result of a trial of Athlophoros, as it does all you claim for it. It cured me entirely of rheumatism, and I cheerfully recommend it to all sufferers with that terrible disease. C. F. Griffin, a butcher of Stuart, Iowa.

Emerald Grove.

—D. M. Barlass, the town treasurer, has requested us to state that he will receive taxes at the store at Emerald Grove on the 29th, Fairfield the 30th and at Fairfield the Jan. 2nd and at Clinton January 2nd.

—The Christmas tree exercises will be held at the M. E. church on Thursday evening.

—The oyster supper at the M. E. church was tolerably well attended. The proceeds will be applied to the purchase of presents for the Sunday school children.

—Miss Nellie M. Barlass returned from Dakota on Friday last, where she has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Barlass.

—A number of our young people improved the fine sleighing on Thursday night last by a drive to the social at Mr. J. S. Hedditch's.

—If any one lately picked up a good whip on the road between Emerald Grove and Johnstown, lost December 22d, and it is not to great strain upon their honesty, they may find an owner by leaving the same at Hastings' store.

Arrangements are being made for a literary social at Mr. Loren Cheney's soon.

—W. A. Jackson is teaching in the school near Mr. Winegar's.

—E. Humphrey, of Waterloo, Wis., paid his friends in the Grove a short visit on Monday last.

—School has closed for a two week's vacation—commencing again January 4th.

—Santa Claus just arrived from the Polar regions, may be seen at Hastings. He did not forget to drop at his feet a variety of useful and appropriate presents.

—Hon. Geo. Beesly seems to be the first man to pay his taxes. We had always looked upon George as a "blooted capitalist" and this goes to confirm our opin on.

—A long letter was received by W. D. Hastings from Dr. Seeber, of California, a few days since. The doctor gives a full account of the country, fruit raising, etc., and says he has purchased a fruit ranch himself, and is also attending to his profession. From his ranch he can view the ships on the Pacific on one side and the snow clad mountains on the other. Mrs. Seeber and the children enjoy their new home and are gaining in health.

If you are bilious, take Dr. Pierce's "Pleasant Purgative Pellets," the original "Little Liver Pills." Of all druggists.

Center.

—The soft spell has been the means of a general drop in the tobacco sheds. This will detract from the holiday enjoyment, as many will have to attend to business rather than pleasure.

—The week has been a noted week for sorrow; three deaths since our last chronicle: A Mr. Miller, a man of middle age, loved and respected by a large circle of his German friends; Monday the community paid their last tribute of respect to the infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Fisher; E. A. Foot, Esq., of Footville, passed away at 2 o'clock Monday. Mr. Foot was one of the pioneers of Wisconsin, and probably none have done more in the ordinary course of life to add to its history.

—Mrs. Ira Parmley was brought home yesterday from Janesville. She stood the ride quite as well as might be expected, but is quite reduced in strength from her long illness.

—Mr. John Hopkins, of D. T., is home, and expects to spend Christmas with his parents.

—Next Saturday is grangers' day—election of officers, &c, and a good time is anticipated.

—Our new blacksmith proves himself the boss horse shoer, something much needed these times.

"The Lucky Galveston Screwman."

John Brighton, a cotton screwman of Galveston city, held one-fifth of ticket No. 3,238, which drew the Third Capital Prize of $10,000 in The Louisiana State Lottery Drawing of November 10th, and cashed it was.—Galveston (Tex.) News, Nov. 13. Next?

Johnstown.

—One week of good sleighing has come and gone and everybody has done the best he could to enjoy the same.

—Two more happy souls have launched gaily out upon life's untried ocean, in the marriage of Miss Julia Morse and Wallie Pember. May they find their craft always seaworthy and the wide ocean never rough and boistrous and their course never beset with dangerous shallows and shoals and hidden rocks. So we have to congratulate them and wish them all the happiness imaginable in their new life.

—Rev. Jackson has recovered from his affliction with Job's comforters and filled the desk at the Congregational church last Sunday.

—Many of the people in the neighborhood have got into a habit of coming late to church, but that is much better than staying at home all day these pleasant Sundays.

—Mr. and Mrs. John Wetmore, of Bradford, attended church last Sunday.

—About one hundred persons attended the social and oyster supper at the church last week and the net proceeds were about thirty dollars.

—We learn that Mr. Jonathan A. Fellows has bought the stock of goods in the store of J. D. Spickerman and rented the buildings putting a clerk there.

—Large sleigh loads of the insane and other residents of the county farm were riding all day on Sunday last around the square and it took all day with two big sleighs to give all of them an airing.

—Many of the people in this vicinity will spend Christmas at home but some will have family gatherings and Christmas trees with presents corresponding to the times.

—Good cheer with contentment, will fill many spaces in any person's life. It will not mend matters to sit down and grumble over the situation.

DISCLAIMER FROM BECK.

HE DENIES MAKING AN ATTACK ON THE PRESIDENT,

But Something Was Necessary To Be Said on the Silver Side—Opinion at the White House—A "Special" on Sparks.

WASHINGTON CITY, Dec. 23.—Senator Beck denied Tuesday evening that his speech made in the senate on the silver question was an attack on the administration. "I have argued this question with John Sherman and Senator Morrill," he said, "long before some of these people ever thought of being presidents or secretaries. I will support the administration to the best of my ability whenever I agree with it, and nine times out of ten I will agree with it. But I am not going to get down on my knees before this administration that 'thrift may follow fawning.' I have given them the benefit of their own statements and their own facts. Let them refute what I have said before they begin to criticise me for saying it."

The senator was informed that criticisms were being passed not so much on his remarks as on their inappropriateness at the present time. "What would they have me do," said he. "The president's message has been out almost a month. Congress has been in session almost a month. The country has only heard one side of this question, and I want them to hear the other. The western country is all alarmed because it does not know what is going to be done with the silver question. They have read the president's message, and that is all they have seen on the subject. Now I want to show them that there is another side to the question. I want to assure them that nothing is going to be done in the matter of silver coinage now. There may come a time when I shall be just as anxious to suspend the coinage of silver as any of these gentlemen, but I do not think this is the time. Oh, I have great hopes that the president will ultimately be convinced that he has been wrongfully advised in this matter. The arguments he has heard have been all one-sided. Now, I have great faith in the justice of the president, and I think when he has heard the other side of this question he will see that he is in the wrong."

At the White House Senator Beck's speech was referred to incidentally, but President Cleveland betrayed no solicitude as to its effect. The attack was not regarded as so urgent to make it the subject of allusion in the cabinet meeting. Mr. Manning does not betray any visible alarm at the prospect of being summoned before the finance committee. The treasury officers are confident they will be able to show the committee that they are not law-breakers or the tools of bondholders, and they may succeed in showing the committee that they have ideas not altogether sentimental about the importance of maintaining unimpaired the national credit at home and abroad.

Newspaper Talk About Sparks.

WASHINGTON CITY, Dec. 23.—The Chicago News correspondent telegraphs his paper as follows: There are indications that Land Commissioner Sparks will retire from his office pretty soon. A high official of the interior department said Tuesday that Secretary Lamar had consulted with Land Commissioner Sparks about taking a foreign mission, and that Mr. Sparks consented to take some good position abroad if it were tendered him, saying that the duties of his present office were too onerous, and that he believed a change of climate would be beneficial to his wife's health.

It is no secret in the interior department that some of the recent orders of Commissioner Sparks have been distasteful to Secretary Lamar and to President Cleveland also, and that it would please both of them to export Mr. Sparks. Secretary Lamar visited the senate every afternoon during the last four or five days of last week for the purpose, it is said, of ascertaining whether or not the nomination of Mr. Sparks to a diplomatic or consular position would be confirmed. The result of his visits is not known. It is known, however, that if they were successful, or if his visits on that matter can be made successful when the senate meets in January, Mr. Sparks will be transferred to another branch of the government service.

A Denial from Voorhees.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Dec. 23.—It was announced recently on high senatorial authority that many of the prominent Indiana appointments would be rejected by the senate, among them United States Marshal Hawkins and Postmaster Wadsworth, of La Porte; Henderson, of Kokomo; Hunter, of Lawrenceburg, and United States attorney, Lamb, of Terre Haute. It was published that Mr. Voorhees gave the information. He telegraphs here: "There is nothing within my knowledge to justify the statements that any of the appointments from Indiana will fail of confirmation by the senate. Nothing will be done on the subject until after the holidays.
"D. W. VOORHEES."

Sticking Close to the Law.

WASHINGTON CITY, Dec. 23.—First Comptroller Durham has disallowed an item of $1,800 in the accounts of Norman J. Colman, commissioner of agriculture, on the ground that that amount was used in the purchase of seeds and labor and illegally charged to the appropriation for "laboratory." The explanation given by Commissioner Colman is that the purchases were made in his absence and without his knowledge by Gen. Carmen, chief clerk of the department. The comptroller, however, says the commissioner alone is responsible under the law.

Official Appointments.

WASHINGTON CITY, Dec. 23.—The pension office has established a new board of medical examiners at Robinson, Crawford county, Illinois, consisting of H. C. Kibbie and Columbus Barlow, Democrats, and I. L. Firebaugh, Republican. Gen. Black has also appointed T. J. Fritts, of Pana, to succeed one of the present Republican members of the board at that place.

The secretary of the treasury has appointed Joseph Stealey, of Indiana, to be inspector of hulls of steam vessels for the district of Louisville, Ky.

Cox Will Stay in Turkey.

NEW YORK, Dec. 23.—The public statements that Hon. S. S. Cox is growing tired of his foreign mission and will return to New York within a year and run for congress are quite wide of the truth. Recent private advices report his health as somewhat improved, although the rainy weather, which has just begun, affected his lungs, but not seriously. He was in good spirits, and enjoyed the scenes of life about him. Mr. Cox is entirely pleased with his post, and will not desert it unless unforseen circumstances arise.

The Catholic priests of Montreal have received orders from Bishop Fabre to meddle in no way with politics.

A Whaling Bark Missing.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Dec. 23.—The whaling bark Amethyst, of San Francisco, is supposed to be lost. She was last seen in the Arctic ocean about Oct. 7, bound out, with five whales. She formerly belonged in this city, and has been in the Arctic whaling trade for several years under the agency of Wright, Browne & Co., San Francisco. Some of the officers and crew belong on Long Island.

Another Race for the America's Cup.

NEW YORK, Dec. 23.—At a meeting of the New York Yacht club, held Tuesday evening, the challenge of the English cutter Galatea to contend for the America's cup was accepted, and at the next meeting of the America's cup committee a special committee will be appointed to arrange the details of the contest.

KNIGHT AND PRELATE.

THE ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH AND THE KNIGHTS OF LABOR.

A Question of Importance to Both Parties—A Bishop's Guarded Remarks—Industrial Notes—Steel-Makers Combining to Raise Prices.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Dec. 23.—The question as to whether or not the growing organization known as the Knights of Labor comes under the ban which the Roman Catholic church pronounces on all societies the members of which are bound by oath to keep secret their deliberations has been asked in this section very frequently of late. It is an interesting query, in view of the fact that the Knights of Labor consist in good part of Roman Catholics. Interviews on the subject have been held in many parts of the country with priests of the Roman Catholic church. As a rule the opinions expressed have been favorable, but of course they have not been authoritative. The bishop of the diocese is the only person who can speak with authority on this and kindred matters. To learn how the Knights of Labor, which are growing rapidly in Connecticut, were regarded in the Connecticut diocese, Bishop McMahon was interviewed Tuesday at Hartford. Some of the opinions favorable to the organization given to the press by priests of the church were handed to the bishop, and the question asked whether or not he objected to have Catholics in this diocese join the Knights of Labor. He said: "Well, I understand the gist of the article, but you can understand that we do not consider it what they call 'the thing' to discuss matters of this kind in the newspapers." Then, with a significant smile, he added: "If I had any fault to find with the organization I would condemn it from the pulpit of every church in Connecticut. I do not wish to say anything more on the subject."

"Does the order of the Knights of Labor, from the fact that its members are oath-bound to secrecy, come under the class of secret societies that the church has condemned?"

"I do not know that the members take an oath. I must, therefore, decline to answer the question, and I must also decline to entertain the supposition that they do take such an oath." This statement by the bishop, the most distinct utterance which Bishop McMahon has yet given, the knights regard as evidence that he is anxious not to to lose the support which their large body gives the Roman Catholic church.

STEEL MANUFRCTURERS CONFER.

Arranging for an Association to Control Prices.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Dec. 23.—A highly important meeting of steel manufacturers of this city was held at the Hotel Anderson Tuesday afternoon, at which there were present representatives of all the iron and steel firms in this vicinity. The meeting had been called for the purpose of bringing about some organization of steel manufacturers in this city and ultimately throughout the country, with a view to the establishment of a card rate of prices and the prevention of rate cutting. During the last few years dull trade has greatly demoralized prices and manufacturers have been frequently cutting rates. Since prosperity has returned, a desire for better prices has arisen and it is proposed to revive the association which formerly existed. The meeting lasted two hours and a number of plans on the price question were proposed, but final action was deferred to a future meeting. Meanwhile the secretary will communicate with manufacturers throughout the country and arrange for them to attend in larger numbers at the next meeting.

The First Locomotive in America.

WASHINGTON CITY, Dec. 23.—The "John Bull" locomotive, the ancestor of all the locomotives now in use on American railroads, was placed on exhibition in the historical hall at the National museum Tuesday. It was made in England in 1835, by George Stephenson, and sent to this country. It was presented to the museum by the Pennsylvania Railroad company which for twenty years past has had it in possession.

The Strike Is Weakening.

PITTSBURG, Dec. 23.—There was a decided break in the Monongahela river miners' strike Tuesday. In the fourth pool nearly every mine is in operation at the reduced rate, and in the second and third pools the several mines have received large accessions to their working forces.

Thurman as Arbitrator.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Dec. 23.—Hon. Allen G. Thurman was selected Tuesday night as umpire before the mining arbitration board. The judge was suggested by the miners and readily accepted by the operators. The committee appointed to wait on him report that he will accept.

Singer Works Blow in Again.

ELIZABETH, N. J., Dec. 23.—The Singer sewing machine factory whistle was blown at 7:30 Tuesday morning and the locked-out employes returned to work. The tax dispute has not yet been arranged.

The Horror Grows More Horrible.

DETROIT, Dec. 23.—The mystery in the murder of the Knoch family, last Wednesday morning, seems as far from solution as ever. Horrible as were the first details of the crime, the latest investigation shows still greater atrocity. Besides being shot, the father, mother, and one child had their heads cut open with an ax or other sharp instrument. After being further mutilated, the mangled remains of the family were piled upon the floor, the house rifled, and then set on fire to conceal the evidence of the crime. The latest move in the investigation was the sending of officers to Saranac, where a man is held answering the description of "Aleck" Rowe, the hired man, who was one of those suspected of the murder.

Outbreak of Cholera at Venice.

LONDON, Dec. 23.—The reports which reach London from Venice do not indicate a very serious outbreak of cholera there, but there is a sufficient number of cases to frighten the people, and a good many of those who are able to leave at once are doing so. It is not thought there is much cause for alarm, as the authorities all over Italy are better prepared to combat the epidemic than they were at its last preceding incursion.

Murdered for His Money.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Dec. 23.—News reaches here from Crystal City, forty miles south, that the dead body of Martin Thorpe, a glass worker from Bethlehem, Pa., was found in the woods near that place Monday with his skull crushed in. The crime was committed several days ago, robbery being evidently the motive, as a valuable watch of the deceased was gone, and his pocket-book found near by, rifled of its content.

I had a severe attack of catarrh, and became so deaf I could not hear common conversation. I suffered terribly from roaring in my head. I procured a bottle of Ely's Cream Balm, and in three weeks could hear as well as I ever could, and now I can say to all who are afflicted with the worst of diseases, catarrh, take one bottle of Ely's Cream Balm and be cured. It is worth $1,000 to any man, woman or child suffering from catarrh.—A. E. Newman, Grayling, Mich.

CELEBRATING "FOREFATHERS' DAY."

The Puritans Duly Remembered in New York and New Orleans—Some of the Toasts.

NEW YORK, Dec. 23.—The New England society of this city celebrated "Forefathers' Day" with a banquet Tuesday evening at Delmonico's. The large banquet hall on the second story of the building was tastefully decorated. Among the 253 members and guests present were Gen. Horace Porter, Hon. Thomas B. Reed, Morris K. Jesup, Senator Hawley, Judge Daly, Rev. J. R. Paxton, Hon. Levi P. Morton, Hon. Benjamin Silliman, Commodore Ralph Chandler, Thomas L. James, J. M. Fiske, James C. Carter, M. W. Cooper, Joel Parker, Elliott Sanford, Dr. C. W. Packard, John W. Sterling, Dexter A. Hawkins, Russell Sage, Judge Noah Davis, W. H. Webb, H. C. Bowen, and Rastus S. Ranson.

After coffee President Stewart L. Woodford delivered the opening address and proposed the "Memory of U. S. Grant." The toast was drunk in silence. In response to the toast of the "President of the United States," Mr. Woodford read a letter from President Cleveland, in which the latter said that he regretted that he had to decline the invitation to attend the banquet. If pressure of public duties did not prevent it, the period of mourning for the late vice president would.

The president's health was then drunk amid loud cheers. The toast, "The Puritans—a People Who Believed Something," was responded to eloquently by Senator Hawley.

Gen. Horace Porter spoke to the toast: "The Army and Navy," and Hon. T. B. Reed, of Maine, to "The Congress of the United States." "The Old-Fashioned Man of God," was responded to by Rev. Dr. J. R. Paxton, and Judge Daly spoke for "Our Guests." The speech-making lasted until a late hour.

Celebrated at New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 23.—The celebration of New England Day at the exposition was a successful and enjoyable one. The exercises began in the Music hall at 2 p. m. with Commissioner Mead, of Vermont, presiding. After prayer by Dr. Markham speeches were made by Commissioner Mead, of Vermont; J. H. Hall, of Maine W. G. Bates, of Rhode Island; Dr. Northrup secretary of the board of education of Connecticut; J. R. G. Pitkins, the orator of the occasion; Mayor E. A. Burke, and President McConnico. All the speeches were very felicitous and enthusiasm was great.

The services ended at 5 o'clock, when 200 guests, mostly New Englanders or their descendants, sat down to a banquet provided for them. A number of patriotic toasts were responded to by prominent New Englanders. Letters were read from governors of Rhode Island, Connecticut and Massachusetts, and the New England society of New York. One memento of the occasion was a chair which came over in the second trip of the Mayflower, and which formerly belonged to Mrs. Birch, of Connecticut, who celebrated her 101st birthday in it in 1877. At noon the New England commissioners gave a lunch to their brother commissioners, which was greatly enjoyed.

A Friend in Need.

NEW YORK, Dec. 23.—F. O. Ross, who has been an inmate of Ludlow street jail for six years, has secured his liberty through the generosity of Mr. Erastus Wiman. Ross failed for something like $90,000, and was committed to jail, and by a decision of the court of appeals he was apparently doomed to imprisonment for life. Judge Donohue became interested in the case, but found himself powerless. Ross, discovering that Mr. Wiman was the president of the Canadian club, wrote to him as a fellow-Canadian. Mr. Wiman, finding no other way of helping Ross, finally decided to compromise the debt under which the prisoner was held, and by the payment of the amount agreed to Ross was released. Ross has been provided with employment, and will soon be joined by his wife, to whom he had been married only three months before his incarceration.

A Bradlaugh Case in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Dec. 23.—Eugene Prussing, an attorney, was an important witness in a swindling case being tried before Judge Shephard Tuesday. When about to be sworn the defendant's attorneys objected, and demanded to know if the witness believed in the existence of a God. Mr. Prussing would not affirm that this was the case, but said he was willing to take the oath, and it would be binding on his conscience. Judge Shepard decided the matter by allowing Prussing to be sworn. He was of the opinion that the framers of the constitution of 1870 intended to remove the disability of atheists so that they might take the oath. He would decide the question in that way, he said, so that the defendants might take it to the higher court.

The Billiard Champions.

CHICAGO, Dec. 23.—The second game of the billiard tournament now in progress at Central Music hall was played Tuesday night between Jacob Schafer and Maurice Vignaux. Playing began promptly at 7:30 o'clock, despite the fact of a very slim attendance, and the game was closely contested to the end. The highest runs made were: Vignaux, 98, 48, 152; Schafer, 49, 53, 105, 80. Vignaux won by a score of 800 to 686. The averages were: Vignaux, 22 2-9; Schaefer, 19 1-18. Schaefer and Slosson play next, and if the former wins it will necessitate play during the entire week. If, however, Slosson wins he will be declared the champion.

Negroes Emigrating West.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Dec. 23.—The exodus of negroes from South Carolina, Georgia and Florida to the western states is greater this year than ever before, and it is commanding unusual attention. Over 1,000 negroes have gone through Chattanooga in the last few weeks, and transportation is being arranged for fully 4,000 more, who will leave within sixty days. At a low estimate over 10,000 will leave the states named this season. They say bad crops and high rents are driving them west. They go principally to Arkansas.

TRISTRAM SHANDY'S FATHER.

Tristram Shandy, in the humorous opening chapters of the book which bears his name and purports to record his life and opinions, tells us that his father was at one time afflicted with sciatica, and that this affliction was indirectly the cause of events which had a most baleful and unhappy effect upon his own future life. Little matters like these often do affect the career not only of the sufferer himself, but of those by whom he is surrounded, and perhaps Tristram's subsequent misfortunes, even more than he knew, might all be traced to that sciatica from which his father, "a Turkey merchant—one of the most regular men in everything he did, whether it was matter of business or matter of amusements, that ever lived"—suffered all December, January and February. Sciatica and other diseases must be held responsible for a good deal that goes wrong in the present day also, and even an attack of indigestion in so august a personage as a President or King may lead to events that may affect the destinies of nations.

An attack of sciatica, however, from which Mr. T. E. Chatfield, a contractor and builder of Milwaukee, Wis., has recently suffered, painful as it was, has been attended with at least one good result, for which Mr. Chatfield is thankful, and that is it has shown him that there is a cure for the disease. Mr. Chatfield lives at No. 365 Eleventh avenue, and is well known in Milwaukee. To one who called upon him in reference to his case he told this story:

"Yes; I was afflicted terribly. I took some Athlophoros and the disease is gone. I will explain how it was. Rheumatism is not a new thing with me by any means. I had the sciatica for many years and tried many kinds of medicine without any relief. Of course, there would be times when I would suffer worse than at others, especially in damp and stormy weather. Last fall I had a very severe attack, probably the worst I ever had.

"I was so badly crippled that I could not walk and I could not get any sleep, except when the doctor would inject morphine. Then I would be able to doze a little while. I read about Athlophoros in the papers and decided to try it in my case. After using about two-thirds of a bottle the pain went away as if by some magic power and in a few days I was entirely well and went about my work."

"Did you have any returns of the disease during the severe winter?"

"No; nothing to speak of. I felt a little twinge in my right leg, but I attribute that to my leaving off the medicine so soon. I got well so quickly that I quit taking the medicine and did not really give it a fair chance to clear the disease entirely out of my system. If any sufferer from rheumatism is made sick by the Athlophoros in taking it according to the directions I would advise him to take smaller doses, but to stick to the medicine, as it will surely cure him as it did me."

E. L. Dimock, of the firm of Dimock & Hayner, insurance agents, East Milwaukee street, Janesville, Wis., who was so seriously afflicted with rheumatism in his hips and legs that he could not move without great trouble and intense pain, gives this as his experience with Athlophoros:

"I have now used one bottle of Athlophoros with the most satisfactory results, being almost entirely free from pain."

If you cannot get ATHLOPHOROS of your druggist, we will send it express paid, on receipt of regular price—one dollar per bottle. We prefer that you buy it from your druggist, but if he hasn't it, do not be persuaded to try something else, but order at once from us, as directed. ATHLOPHOROS CO., 112 Wall Street, New York.

THE VICTIMS AT NANTICOKE.

Twenty-Five Men Undoubtedly Dead—Preparations for Recovery.

NANTICOKE, Pa., Dec. 23.—The fate of the miners imprisoned in No. 1 slope of the Susquehanna Coal company was finally determined Tuesday night at 8 o'clock, when the rescuing party was driven from their work by another large cave-in of water, sand, and culm.

The full and correct list of those imprisoned in the mine since this disaster, and whose death is now decided upon, is as follows: Michael Adamoschick, Thomas Clifford, William Dehaney, John Drajta, William Elkie, Edward Hargraves, John Hawk, Wadislaw Jelmoshinski, Oliver Kivler, William Kivler, Frank Kivler, Maux Longolks, Abram Lewis, Andrew Lowe, Vincent Luke, Edward Matthews, August Matule, Peter Mattlewicz, Joseph McCarty, John Nowach, Abram Rubinski, Isaac Sarver, John Sarver, John Shutt, Thomas Williams.

Of these eleven were married men, most of whom leave children as well as wife. Altogether fourteen children are made fatherless.

All day long Tuesday there was an intense feeling of sorrow throughout the Wyoming valley over this, the most disastrous accident of the past fifteen years. The bodies of the men are to be recovered as soon as possible, however. This is the decision arrived at at the council of the officials of the company and the mining bosses. At first it was thought more expedient to sink a tunnel through the rock and reach them in that way, but it was abandoned as being too tedious and costly. It was then agreed that as soon as the black damp is all removed a gang of picked miners will enter the refilled gangway and again commence the task of reopening it. If there is no squeeze encountered like that of Monday night, they will accomplish the work in a week. The works of the company, which have been idle since Friday, will resume at once.

THE MORMON CONSPIRACY.

Novel Plan Adopted by the Saints to Get Even.

SALT LAKE, Utah, Dec. 23.—The trial of B. Y. Hampton, charged with conspiracy, commenced before Judge Zane Tuesday. Hampton is the city officer and prominent Saint charged with entering into a conspiracy with prostitutes to establish houses of prostitution for the purpose of entrapping federal official and gentiles. The only witness examined to-day was Mrs. Fields, one of the prostitutes. She testified that she entered into a contract with Hampton. He furnished a house for her and the police promised that she should not be arrested for running a house of prostitution in the city. The police paid her rent and reserved one room in the house for spotters. Hampton paid her $400 altogether. He took her past Governor Murray's house in a buggy pointed out the residence, and told her to call on the governor and try to get him to call on her. Hampton promised her $300 if she got the governor. Hampton and his associates told her they wanted to get the names of these gentiles so they could take them off the juries in polygamy trials. They wanted to entrap the governor in order to get polygamists out of the penitentiary. It appears that the police took a very active part in the conspiracy. The trial is exciting great interest, and is attended by the governor, mayor of the city, and other officials. It will probably last several days. Three other indictments are pending against Hampton, one for conspiracy with another woman and two for keeping houses of ill-fame.

Bad Fire at Bay City.

BAY CITY, Mich., Dec. 23.—At 5 o'clock Tuesday night a bright light and great volumes of smoke indicated serious work for the fire department. The fire proved to be at Murphy & Door's mill, on a strip of land between Bay City and West Bay City known as the middle ground. The mill and docks were destroyed, and seventy men are thrown out of employment. The fire originated in the machine-shop, which was enveloped in flames in two minutes. The men had just left work. Loss on mill, $45,000; insurance, $22,000. Loss on the salt block, $5,000; insurance, $10,000. Loss on docks and salt stored thereon in sheds, $10,000; insurance, $3,000. Loss on drill-house, $3,000; no insurance, the policy having expired three days ago.

Shipping Gold to England.

NEW YORK, Dec. 23.—The absorbing topic of interest in Wall street Tuesday was the advance in the rates of foreign exchange, the quotation for demand sterling bills reaching the point at which shipments can be made at a profit—490½ for posted rates and 489½ for actual business. There was an engagement for $100,000 gold Tuesday afternoon for shipment on Saturday. The immediate cause for this has been the advance in the Bank of England rate of discount last week, but a more direct and potential cause is to be found in the extremely light shipments of grain to Europe, especially wheat, while the visible supply of wheat in this country is far in excess of previous years.

Methodist Church Extension Society.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 23.—A circular has been addressed to the Methodists at large in this country by Mr. Thomas W. Price, setting forth the reasons for opposing the management and methods of the Church Extension society, and in it he recites with great fullness of detail the arguments made during the recent session of the body in this city. His main charge is that this body is under the absolute control of the bishops, whereas, under the act of 1855, all church property should be under the control of laymen.

CHICAGO, Dec. 23.—The following dispatch has been received here:

VINCENNES, Ind. Dec. 23.—At 11 o'clock to-night a fire broke out in Q. J. McJunsey's livery stable, and the flames spread rapidly into E. G. Almost twenty days have elapsed since the Orphan Boy left St. Ignace with a cargo of boards for this port. Among marine men the belief is general that the schooner and Capt. Halliday, with his crew of nine men, have been lost.

Mrs. Hendricks on Female Reform.

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 22.—As president of the board of managers, Mrs. Hendricks Monday filed with the governor the annual report of the Indiana Reformatory institution for Women and Girls. The average number of inmates was 188; the actual expense to the state for maintenance was $15,495, or $82.42 for each inmate. The report says: "Begun in fear and trembling and continued through fourteen years, two things have been demonstrated: 1. That women are capable of being reformed, lifted up and started anew upon the paths of honesty, sobriety and usefulness. 2. That women as managers and officers, are capable of managing large financial and moral interests in a manner to reflect credit upon themselves and the state who so bravely placed her trust in them."

George William Curtis' Beginning.

[Joe Howard.]

I was reading but a day or two since of an interview between George William Curtis and the older Harper:

It seems that Mr. Curtis, when a struggling youth, had written with great care what seemed an interesting book, took the manuscript to Mr. Harper, who, in a chilly tone of voice, informed him that they had recently published a work on the same subject. Curtis was about to take his manuscript and retire when Mr. Harper's eye fell upon its peculiar neatness. Turning the pages, here and there a sentence struck him, while the heart of the young hopeful beat sturdily beneath his vest. "I will take this book," said Mr. Harper. The foot of George William Curtis was then upon the threshold. Boldly he entered the room whence in all time since his utterances have commanded respect and admiration. What a chance! The mere dropping of a button, the simple glance of an eye along a freshly written, legibly presented page settled his fate.

Declarations of the Dying.

[Chicago Times.]

In the prosecution of homicidal cases, often dying declarations are not taken, owing to the belief prevalent that only coroners or magistrates are competent to receive them, and thus most valuable testimony is lost, although there is no foundation in law for any such belief, and dying declarations taken by any person are competent evidence. The presence of the person who inflicted the fatal injuries in order to cross-examine the victim is not indispensable. It is sufficient for the injured man to designate by word or some sign intelligible to the person taking the ante-mortem statement the person who injured him. The injured man must, however, have given up hope of recovery at the time.

Gen. Grant on the Eastern Question.

Eugene Schuyler, in the last North American Review, has an interesting paper on "United Bulgaria." He says Gen. Grant was very much interested in the eastern question, and while visiting Constantinople entertained some friends by telling what he would have done had he arrived before Constantinople at the head of a victorious army. Without entering into details, Mr. Schuyler says he would have occupied the city, made provision for the safety of all property, and then issued a proclamation leaving all ultimate arrangements to the European powers on one condition: "That the rule of the Turk in Europe was to be forever abolished."

When combined with the healing mucilaginous principle in the mullein plant of the old fields, presents in TAYLOR'S CHEROKEE REMEDY OF SWEET GUM AND MULLEIN the finest known remedy for Coughs, Croup, Whooping-cough and Consumption; and so palatable, any child is pleased to take it. —Badger Council No. 223, Royal Arcanum, regular semi monthly meeting this evening—lodge room in the Lappin block, East Milwaukee street.

—On Christmas afternoon and evening there will be played two match games of polo at the rink between the Rockfords and the Riversides. The admission fee will be 15 cents.

—Late signal service reports indicate that a cold wave is approaching from the north, and within the next 36 hours the temperature will range from 10 to 30 degrees below zero.

—Miss Hertha Brightman's parents are now residing in the city, and Miss Brightman anticipates being able to resume her work in teaching German at the expiration of the holiday season.

—The thirteenth annual party of Washington Engine Co. No. 1 will be given to-morrow evening at the Rifles' armory. Smith & Corliss' orchestra will furnish the music and all who attend are assured of a most pleasant Christmas Eve.

—Saturday afternoon at three o'clock the Rev. Thomas Harrison will hold a service in the auditorium of Court Street M. E. church. He will take for his subject: "The Full Assurance of Faith" and will give his personal experience in regard to the secret of power.

—Colonel Boynton has on exhibition at the Sol Tobias jewelry store, the famous Eagle diamond. A little history of this precious stone recently appeared in the columns of the Gazette. The public will be interested in seeing a rough diamond for which Col. Boynton refused $1,200. Wisconsin is a wonderful state, the tariff on diamonds should be revised.

—Mrs. W. T. Vankirk, and her son Willie, met with an accident yesterday afternoon, but very luckily escaped being hurt. They were riding on Milwaukee street about half past four o'clock when a farm wagon driven rather carelessly ran into their cart. The light vehicle was upset and the occupants spilled into the street, but as no runaway resulted little damage was done.

—The Sunday school of the First M. E. church have completed arrangements for an old fashioned Christmas tree. The distribution of presents will be supplemented by a literary entertainment in which the little people under the direction of Miss Alice Walker, will take a conspicuous part. The entertainment will be held in the auditorium of the church, commencing at 7:30 o'clock.

—Mr. F. S. Winslow, the popular C.O. D. man on River street, with a spirit of liberality for which he is noted, offers to place at the disposal of the mayor or any committee whom he may appoint, 25 sacks of flour to be distributed as Christmas presents to the poor people of Janesville. The same spirit of liberality as practically expressed throughout the city would provide an abundance for all our home poor.

—This year a number of persons connected with the Presbyterian church are making a move for a new building. This year they intend to devote the sum usually spent in Christmas exercises, to a building fund. With this as a nucleus they intend to raise the necessary amount and erect a building which will be a credit to them. It is expected that a large part of the sum will be raised by subscription, and the movers in the enterprise should receive strong support.

—Yesterday afternoon just before five o'clock, there was a runaway on Milwaukee street which though short, was very exciting. W. F. Carle's team of ponies was standing near Kimball & Lowell's store, when a farm wagon backed against them and started them on a run, at the same time throwing Harry Carle, their driver, out on the ground. He kept hold of the lines, and though dragging almost under the wheels, he managed to stop them before they had run more than a block.

—The school commissioners held a special meeting last evening, at which President St. John presided, all the members being present except Commissioner Miner and Bowles. But very little business was transacted. A couple of bills were audited. Commissioner Smith was instructed to renew certain insurance policies, and the clerk gave notice that a representative of the Ruttan furnace company had examined the furnaces in the second and fourth ward school buildings, and would supply those buildings with larger ventilating registers. The board, on motion of Commissioner Smith, adjourned.

—The funeral services of Charles E. Kienow were held at two o'clock this afternoon, from the rooms of the deceased on East Milwaukee street. The Rev. John H. Schlerf, pastor of the German Lutheran church of this city officiated, and the following persons acted as pall bearers: Louis Knipp, A. W. Bauman, Michael Buob, John Zamzow, John Falter and John Ehrlinger. A large number of friends were present and paid a last tribute to the deceased. Mr. Kienow was a member of the Concordia society, and a delegation from that body sang at the grave.

—"The end crowns the work," is an old saying, but true; and so think the St. Patrick's T. A. & B. society, under whose auspices a pleasant dancing party will be given in the Guards' armory, on Wednesday evening, December 30th. The work of the society is not finished, we are glad to say; but as the old year is drawing to a close, it is a fitting time to celebrate the success of the society in the past, and to urge, as the new year approaches, a continuance of all the good qualities possessed by St. Patrick's T. A. & B. Anderson's band will enliven the dancers. Tickets 50 cents. The friends of the society are cordially invited, and should not forget to give them a call.

—The revival meeting was largely attended last evening, and the services were unusually interesting. Mr. Harrison impressed upon his audience the importance of seeking God, using for a text the scripture, "Now is the time to seek the Lord." By illustration and earnest entreaty, the truth was applied, and many expressed a desire to heed the warning. The speaker was in one of his happiest moods, and imparted to the meeting an enthusiasm and glow which characterized it as one of the best meetings of the series. The meetings will be continued every afternoon and evening this week. On Saturday afternoon Mr. Harrison will speak on the consecration of faith, relating his own experience.

—A dispatch from Clinton under date of December 22d, to the Milwaukee Sentinel, says: "A burglar entered the house of William Graham, a laborer living near this city, last night, and at the point of the revolver forced Graham to give up $3,000 or $4,000 in money which was in the house. Henry Lawson was suspected of the deed, and was arrested by the authorities early this morning. Henry Lawson is a resident of this place, but a former member of the Cincinnati base ball club. He was arrested here late last night by J. M. Baldwin, city marshal, and turned over to an Illinois sheriff. A search was made of his father's premises this morning, and it was found that a considerable portion of the money had been placed in the stove, and nothing but the ashes remained; $1,427.50 of the amount being in gold, was recovered. This was found where he had secreted it in the barn. He is now in Belvidere. He had always borne a good reputation."

—Misses Della Hanchett, Stella Palmer, Midu Culver, Fannie VanKirk, Bertha Jackson and Eva Nash have returned from Rockford to spend the holidays.

—Cards are out for the marriage of Miss Eva Freeman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Freeman, of Minneapolis, to Mr. Willard J. Hield, of this city. The ceremony will take place at the bride's home on Christmas eve.

—The Rev. Samuel Jolliffe, pastor of the Methodist church at Whitewater, arrived in the city last evening, and attended the revival services at Court Street church. We acknowledge a pleasant call from the reverend gentleman this morning.

—The Chicago Journal of last evening publishes the following: "The Galesburg polo club leaves on a northern and eastern trip Thursday evening. Ed Taylor, of the Chicago club has joined them. They go first to Wisconsin. This season they have already vanquished the best clubs of Chicago and St. Louis.

POLO.

The Home Team Wins in Janesville.

While at Oshkosh the Visitors Carry off the Honors.

Janesville vs. Milwaukee.

The Cream City does turn out some good polo players and the team which visited Janesville last night was of that order. There wasn't a poor player in the lot and for a time it looked very much against the Janesville boys.

Game was called at about a quarter after nine, the Milwaukee club not arriving until 8:45. During the first goal it looked very unfavorable for the Riversides, their opponents being greatly ahead of them in team play. Their players were not working so much for individual glory as they were for general results. This system seemed to prosper and they captured the first goal. Over taking it in 3 minutes and 5 seconds after play commenced.

The boys now were on their mettle and played as though it was for life. One or two faults were noticed in this goal, especially the failure of the Janesville boys to support each other. They did fine individual playing, however, and kept the ball at the Milwaukee end most of the time. Hanson finally succeeded in getting a chance at the sphere and made a clean, safe hit into the visitors cage. Time 4:12½.

The Milwaukee boys took the lead from the start in the third goal and in just 27 seconds from the pull off, Owens had the ball and running half the length of the floor with it he scored for the visitors.

The fourth goal furnished another example of excellent all-around work by the Milwaukees and a number of very fine stops by Brown and Schaller of the Riversides. The visitors goal tending was also very fine, all through the game, and their rushing was hard to contend with. The home team did well, however, and when 2 minutes and eight seconds had passed they saddened their opponents by another tally made by Wyler. The last part of this goal was very exciting, a hot scrimmage taking place just outside the Milwaukee cage, and Wyler, in winning, merely hooked the rubber sphere over to the inside of the foot board.

The deciding goal was made for the Riversides by Sperry, he taking the ball nearly the length of the floor and skillfully pushing it into the cage. Time, 4:18.

Among the visitors Williams and Somers in goal and Owens as rusher did the best work, they being frequently cheered. Sperry, of the Janesvilles, played in his usual style, receiving much applause and bothering Owens and Van Veghten badly. Smith did unusually well as half back and saved at least two goals by his skillful work. Hanson and Wyler also played very well individually but made bad moves in attempting to work out of their positions. In this point the visitors showed themselves to be much superior to the home team, playing a very scientific game, all through the evening, and receiving much praise on that account. The positions of the men were as follows:

MILWAUKEES.	Positions.	RIVERSIDES.
Owen	Rushers	Wyler
VanVeckton		Sperry
Deakens	Half Back	Smith
Hosoh	Point	Hanson
Summers	Cover	Brown
Williams	Goal Tend	Shaller

Referee—F. L. Hayden.
Time keeper—Sol. Wyler.
Scorer—Fred Burpee.
Boule—Milwaukee, one.
Time—14:05.
Goals—1st Milwaukee; 2d Riverside; 3d Milwaukee; 4th Riverside; 5th Riverside.

RACINE VS, OSHKOSH.

OSHKOSH, Dec. 23, (Special) The visitors won in the league polo game last night by a score of 3 to 0. There was considerable dissatisfaction among the Oshkosh boys on account of the referees decisions and it is claimed that the game should not be awarded to Racine. The game was remarkable for hard hitting more than for science though a number of fine plays were made.

Attractive.

People who have been absent from Janesville for a number of years are surprised to note on their return the many attractive business blocks which have sprung into existence, giving to the city a metropolitan appearance. Prominent among the improvements in this line is the new block on West Milwaukee street just being completed. The store in this block belonging to Mr. Merrill is already occupied, and presents as attractive an appearance as any store in the city. The occupants are Messrs. Wyler & Stilson, the popular cigar men. These gentlemen have spared no expense in fitting up their place of business, and the effect of the rich cherry furnishing is simply elegant. Their stock of goods compares favorably, with the surrounding, and their trade is rapidly increasing. Call and see them at their new quarters.

Corrections.

To the Editor.

BRODHEAD, Wis., Dec. 23, 1885.—How could you, or any one else make such a "mess of it" in preparing the obituary notice of the Hon. Ezra A. Foot, of Footville, that appeared in yesterday's Gazette. E. A. Foot was never a chaplain in the 13th regiment or any other. He never graduated at Lawrence university and was never ordained by Bishop Ames or any body else. All these are incidents in the life of the Rev. J. I. Foot, son of E. A. Foot. J. I. Foot was serving in the office of the county superintendent of schools in Rock county when he was appointed as chaplain in the 13th regiment. He was elected and served in the same office when he returned from the army.

Respectfully yours,
C. F. DICKEY.

[We took, as our authority, the Western Historical company's "History of Rock county," supposing it to be correct, having some doubts at the time concerning several assertions. We are glad that Mr. Dickey calls our attention to the blunders, and trust the papers copying will also make the correction.—EDS. GAZETTE.]

Attention Choral Union.

The Choral Union will meet on Wednesday evening of this week in the Sunday school room of the All Souls church on Court street. This change is made to accommodate the meetings now in progress at Court Street M. E. church.

TOBACCO.

Very Little Business This Week.

The Growers Are Blessed with Favorable Weather for Stripping.

JANESVILLE.

During the week past the elements have smiled on the grower. A warm wind from the south thawed away the snow banks and two or three foggy nights have brought tobacco into good shape. Tobacco sheds have been open, and the leaf has been brought down very fast. This damp weather will do something to wake up the market, as buyers can have an opportunity to inspect crops with a view to purchasing.

Old goods have been very quiet, only two sales being reported and both of those unimportant. The shipments have been about as usual and are mostly goods packed on commission.

FILLERS.

The Lancaster, Pennsylvania tobacco meeting drew up a tariff law which would seem to be a very safe one. They provide that any bale of leaf which may contain any leaf suitable for wrappers be taxed $1.50 a pound. This would virtually be a high tariff on all imported leaf including the Havana filler. Very little of the Havana leaf is packed without a few wrappers finding their way into the bundle. This duty would be undesirable for that reason but might easily be amended to suit the case.

That the increase of duty on Sumatra will immediately help seed leaf has been disputed by some dealers and cigar manufacturers on the ground that for a year or two the home market will be overstocked. It may be that the New York market is now so overloaded that to stop the importation of Sumatra would have no effect for some time, but still the domestic goods on sale in the cities are most of them of a poor grade and stopping the inflow of foreign wrappers would make a place for the higher grade of seed-leaf.

NEW YORK.

SEED LEAF—The ponderous efforts to load Sumatra with such a duty as to keep its usefulness within a small circle do not fail to lend the seed leaf market a glimmer of trade, and a shadow of independence. The desire to unload at any figure has stopped and seed leaf, as a whole, is once more beginning to be looked at as a merchantable article. The prevailing notion among large holders of leaf is that having held it so long, it is worth while to hold it a little longer. And according to all reports from the growers' section the same notion prevails there.

The sales of the week were as follows: '84 Wisconsin, 300 cases, 12½ to 18 cents; '84 Pennsylvania, 400 cases, 8 to 15 cents; '84 New York state, 500 cases, 9 to 12½ cents; '83 Pennsylvania, 200 cases, 10 to 13 cents; good seconds, 15 to 20 cents. good binders, 10 to 12 cents; common binders, 6 to 7½ cents; fillers—, common, 3 to 5 cents; favorites, 10 to 17 cents.

SUMATRA—No abatement of activity. Demand excellent. Sales 350 bales; quotations, $1.20 to $1.70.

HAVANA—Active. Sales 400 bales; quotations, 85 cents to $1.25.—United States Tobacco Journal.

BALDWINSVILLE.

The market for old has been rather dull for the past week. The only sales we learn of are a number of crops, aggregating perhaps 50 cases, bought by T. M. Emerick. Prices are said to be about the same as has lately been paid. No buyers for the new crop, and we trust will not be until something is done with the Sumatra law.—Baldwinsville Gazette.

PENNSYLVANIA.

Our market has been quiet, not to say dull, during the past week. The transaction resulted in the sale of about 400 cases, all told, divided up between several years. The trade is satisfied there will be a lull until after the holidays, at least, and still longer, perhaps, unless reasonable assurances are received that congress will come to the rescue of this greatly endangered industry. The above shows an increase of 100 sales over the transactions of the previous week. For the corresponding week of 1884 the sales were 200 cases.—Lancaster New Era.

OHIO.

No transactions for this week reported. —Miamisburg Bulletin.

The Highland House.

The Farmers' hotel which has for years been recognized as one of the stand bys of Janesville has been so thoroughly transformed and renovated as to be hardly recognizable. To-day the house was thrown open to the public and filled at the dinner hour with invited guests.

The tables presented a very attractive appearance and the substantial and nicely prepared dinner indicated that the "Highland" under the management of Mr. and Mrs. Corneau will soon become a popular resort. The many friends of this lady and gentleman will join with the Gazette in wishing them substantial success.

Parties wanting buckskin, or, as they are sometimes called, shamois skin, underwear, will find a full stock for ladies and gentlemen, at Pitcher & Zeigler's.
